

TURNER HOUSE

Turner Family Home and Collection

TURNER HOUSE was built in 1910 by James Grantham Turner, pioneer landowner, merchant, and banker for his eldest son, James Henry Turner and his bride, Annie Harper. They had an only child, James. When James died he left the house to operate as the Turner House museum/collection for the benefit of all.

7/23/90
This is a draft copy